THE DESERT – Lyrics

MOONDARQUE • moondarque.com

I miss your body next 2 mine, pure, never scared.
Miss U breathing in the silence we once share.d
I'm searching endless dunes, can't find U anywhere.
There's no color left in this world when U're not there.

I wanna touch U, but I just don't dare.
I wonder what's in your heart, still care?
Where R U? U know I've got my pride.
But I'm so terribly cold without U by my side.

Where R U, what's in your heart?
Tell me, why do we have 2 B apart.
My thoughts are with U all night, all day.
Seems, like all is gone, no more use 2 pray.

> [Refrain]
> And I'm wandering through this lonely desert.
> Wondering why I still can't get U out of my head
> While I'm roaming dunes, this lonely desert.
> Knowing, U're lying with someone else instead.

Why this night is getting darker and colder?
While my thoughts get stronger and bolder
I wanna fall in2 your arms, B there 4ever
But still I wake up cold and lost, no tether.

I miss U, miss U so badly.
I want U, want U so madly.
And I'm wandering in2 the darkness, alone.
MayB that's the place I've always known.
